MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, JAN. 5, 1906.

A French doctor has discovered that there is poison in the yolks of all hens and ducks eggs, but at the present price of eggs few people can afford to take their poison that way.

The Fore River and Buzzards Bay canal project has got a new lease of life. The Congressman Green has a bill before Congress looking for the construction of the much-talked-of new water way from Boston to New York and southern ports.

Congress is in session, the State Legislature is in session and the several cities which elected officers during the last campaign have installed those officers and now watch out for the reforms which were promised.

The Governor's message is now in the hands of the public and it is what might have been expected. It does not propose to interfere with the sun, moon and stars, foreign nations, or the Congress of the United States, and it is Governor of the "Old Bay State" and will work for it and asks the Legislature, to cooperate with him in the work.

No doubt Miss Alice Roosevelt is a nice young lady and her father is proving himself to be a very strenuous president, but that is no reason why the Oregon idea of a popular subscription to make the young lady a $1,000,000 present on her wedding day should be encouraged.
There are thousands of other nice young ladies with strenuous fathers who will stand at the altar before the June roses are all gone and it might be well to divide the $1,000,000 or still better to drop the present business entirely.

Nahant Tribe Red Men.
Dep. Grand Sachem J. F. Gardner and suite visited the wigwam of Nahant Tribe No. 81, I. O. R. M., last evening and raised up the following chiefs: Prophet, Fred Pack; sachem, B. K.
Young; senior sagamore, George F.
Briggs; junior sagamore, John C. Cole; chief of records, J. C. Batchelder; collector of wampum, George F. Phillips; keeper of wampum, James Vining; first senior, J. Sidney Smith; second senior, Charles Brooks; guard of forest, Felix O. Nell; guard of wigwam, Charles Cushing; warriors, Charles Cushing, Fred Adams, W. Stetson, Forest L. Neal; braves, William Storms, James Preston, William H. Williamson and James Larander. A fine collation was served and many big Indian tales.

Massachusetts Press Association.
The annual business meeting and reunion of the Massachusetts Press Association will be held at the United States hotel next Monday. Business meeting at 12 o'clock to be followed by reception and social hour in the ladies' parlor; banquet at 2:30. Hon. John N. Cole, Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Mrs. Nelson V. Titus, president of the Mass. Society of the Daughters of 1812; Mr. Walter S. Parker, superintendent of Boston schools; Theodore P. Wilson, president of the New England Suburban Press association, and other distinguished guests will speak.

The Colonial Orchestra club will furnish music at the banquet, and in the evening, by invitation of the manager of the Majestic theatre, the party will enjoy Lew Dockstader's celebrated minstrels.

Boot and Shoe Outlook.
This is the week of the fifty-two when the shoe trade expects and experiences the quietest time of the year. It is the week when manufacturers, jobbers and retailers look back and review the past, and then turn and consider the future.
Never in the history of the shoe and leather trades were both aspects more pleasing. In looking back, a year of great activity is reviewed, with little or no evidences of disturbances of serious nature. It was a most satisfactory period and the holiday week has been a fitting culmination to a prosperous selling season.

The promises for the coming year are equally satisfactory. Manufacturers are receiving orders from salesmen and by mail, and the reports are flattering regarding the future prospects. The fact that present orders will keep many factories busy on full time until the spring season, and even into it, is encouragement enough for the present, and by the time the winter season is ended there will be more. The retailer as well anticipates a busy selling season, for the people will buy goods even though the probable cost may be an advance over the present. Leather manufacturers are satisfied with the present business and feel assured of continued demands for their products—Boston Transcript.

JOINT INSTALLATION.

Reynolds Post 58, O. A. R., and Woman's Relief Corps Will Install.
The leading event of next week will be the joint installation of officers of Reynolds Post 58, O. A. R., and Woman's Relief Corps 103 which will take place in O'Fallon opera house Tuesday evening.
Comrades of the Post and members of the Corps will report at the opera house at 6 o'clock; supper will be served and the ceremony will follow. Major F.
A. Bicknell will install the officers of the Post.

Monday Club.

A large and appreciative audience, which included as guests the clergymen and teachers of the town, gathered in Masonic hall Monday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Monday club.
The president, Mrs. Hookman, gave a cordial New Year's greeting and introduced Mr.
Samuel Arthur King who gave a Shakespearian recital. Mr. King's interpretations and execution of the several numbers were of the highest order and showed a wonderful combination of the theory and practice of dramatic art. His program was as follows:

Henry VIII, sec. 2—Wolsey's Farewell.
Romeo and Juliet, act 1, sec. 4—Mercurio's description of Queen Mab.
Richard III, act 1, sec. 4—Clarence's Dream.

A Midsummer Night's Dream, act 2, sec. 2—The Fairies.

Hamlet, act 5, sec. 1—Part of the Graveyard Scene.

Julius Caesar, act 3, sec. 2—The orations of Brutus and Mark Anthony at the funeral of Julius Caesar.

The enjoyment of the afternoon was greatly enhanced by the singing of the Polymian quartette, who gave as their selections, "My loves," "The Mocking Bird," "Boating Song," and "The Mocking Bird."

In response to a very strenuous call, "Lullaby," Mr. A. M. Raymond.

Refreshments of ices, cake and coffee were served very efficiently to the large company by the hospitality committee.

Pond Home for the Aged.

On Tuesday the board of trustees, including Virgil S. Pond and his daughter, with many friends, held a merry Christmas festival with the Pond Home family.
A bountiful turkey dinner was served.
A Christmas tree was loaded with gifts for the old people, and a brief entertainment preceded the distribution. The entertainment was given by the Pond Home family.
Mrs. Harriet M. Guy of Quincy, announced Christmas gifts amounting to $45.50 for the treasury. One of the happiest events of the day was a short speech by Mrs. Ellen N. Hartshorn, one of the earliest and oldest members of the family, expressing her gratitude to the trustees and to the superintendent and matron for their constant care and kindness. Altogether it was a day never to be forgotten by those permitted to be present.—Hyde Park Gazette.

Agricultural and Industrial.

The year book of the Weymouth Agricultural and Industrial society is in print at this office and will be in the hands of members and the general public next week.
The book is full of interesting details of last year's work and a general outline of the work intended for the current year and has a new feature which will be of special interest to the different schools in town.
The society offers three prizes of $10, $5 and $3 to the school making the greatest improvement in the grounds surrounding the school buildings. The matter is in the hands of a special committee composed of H. B. Reed, South Weymouth; R. R. Worster, Weymouth, and J. P.
Ford, East Weymouth.

THE BILL OF FARE.

(By Katharine Lee Bates.)
From fall to spring
For a little thing
To spread the birds good cheer
In the winter day.
Where the heart may play At summer all the year.
Nix, if you please,
For the chickens.
Never mind about napkins and crust, But they'll do you, perhaps,
Their cases black caps
For a lump of delectable crust.

An elegant guest
In white dinner
May put them to flight
For though much is "Thank," Intended for "Thank."
No chicken calls him polite.

A superior throne
Is a narrow one
For a woodpecker's potter.
Sincere can be king Eat the cushions and things That embellish their chairs of state.

The blue jay will seize For a fast rumor.
Our snowbird in storm-coat dress,
All white below.
For they say you know,
God pointed her on her nest.

And if courtesy sends Them odds bring more pleasure To the children than those colored theatres, Which they can set up and arrange to suit their several tastes. Every one should begin with "Uncle Tom's Cabin" next Sunday, and thus get the entire series.

The snark-way to this is to order the Boston Sunday Globe from the newsdealer at once.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The new teacher of drawing, Miss Lancaster, started work in the High School yesterday. She is a graduate of the Boston Normal Art school.
There was a basket ball game in the gymnasium today between the freshmen and sophomore boys. This was the second game of the class series. The girls school team play (Wellesley High school) at Wellesley tomorrow. This will be the first game of the season, and they will appear in their new suits.

The Roundabout club has changed the evening for its socials from Thursday to Wednesday. The members did not meet this week, but will hold their next social with Miss Frager next Wednesday evening.

Miss Livermore spent the Christmas vacation in northern trip through Montreal. The other out-of-town teachers spent the vacation at their homes.

The Herald Prize staturary, consisting of six pieces and won by the Weymouth High school in the contest last year, has been placed about the building.
Two pieces, a bust of Hermes, and a small statue of Demosthenes, were large enough for the hall, but the remainder were placed in the library. Some other decorations for the hall, bought with money given the High by the M. C. A., are in the basement awaiting unpacking.

The bi-monthly report cards were given out last Tuesday and those on the honor list are as follows: Seniors, Ruth Alvord, Mildred Bates, Bertha Cunningham and Irene Fraser; juniors, Helen Richards, Margaret Smith and Ralph Mulford; sophomores, Adeline Bicknell, Edith Canterbury, Ida Cronin, Mary Galliard, Rita Page, Alice Sheehy, Doris Taylor and Joseph Tearing.

Brace up boys. Only 3 in 17—Ed.

At the last meeting of the school committee, in December, it was voted to suspend the limit, 2:15, of keeping a student in the High after school. In the future a pupil may be kept as long as the teacher may see fit, either for deportment or for scholarship.

Visitors at the High this week were Miss Mildred Smith, 93, Wellesley 97, and Miss Nellie Butler, 94, Rye 98.

Vincent Sherry 05 is out for the Tarts college track team. Good results may be expected from Sherry as he has proved in the past to be a runner of superior qualities.

Francis Glavin 91 is filling a position with the M. St. John Co. of Boston.

There were no rhetorical in any of the classes this week.

The class of 1905, W. H. S., held a social dance in Music hall, South Weymouth, the Tuesday evening of Christmas week. Music was furnished by C. U.
Tirrell.

A camera club of fifteen members was formed in Room 1 last Monday afternoon.
Mr. Wickless was elected president and he will keep the club in the taking, developing and finishing of pictures.

RAYMOND 97.

Complete Storage Battery.

At the last March meeting, under Article 65 in the warrant, the town voted to raise and appropriate $1,000 for the purpose of removing the gravity battery of the fire alarm system from the basement of the Jederson school building and equip a storage-battery system in the Engine house, Ward 2.

The Board of Fire Engineers and Superintendent of the Fire Alarm system, Her-li Humphrey, were appointed a committee to carry the vote into effect, and the work is now commencing. The superintendent, Fire Alarm and others may well be proud of the result and the new equipment is worthy of a visit from all interested in scientific or mechanical work.

A room 15x20 has been finished off in the upper story of the building and is dedicated up to date. The system installed is known as the Gamewell system and embraces 166 volts of which 35 are in Ward 1, 35 in Ward 2, 32 in Ward 3, and 35 in Wards 4 and 5. One cannot spend a more profitable hour than to visit this place and view the "talking" object being handled by Superintendent Humphrey.

famous characters in the play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Each Sunday following the value series continues the Globe will give its readers a new theatre on heavy cardboard, with the leading characters in some great play or story.

Nothing could bring more pleasure to the children than these colored theatres, which they can set up and arrange to suit their several tastes. Every one should begin with "Uncle Tom's Cabin" next Sunday, and thus get the entire series.

Mrs. Cordelia Haskins Dead.

Mrs. Cordelia, widow of the late Eli Haskins, whose home for a while has been with her daughter, Mrs. William E.
Ames at East Weymouth, did not put in an appearance at the usual hour on Tuesday morning, her room was visited and she was found quietly sleeping, but it was the sleep which was not waking.
She had apparently without a struggle, passed to the great beyond during the night, but the event was not wholly unexpected as Mrs. Haskins, who was nearly 71 years of age, had a severe stroke a short while ago and indications were that another attack was not far off.

Mrs. Haskins was a daughter of Abraham and Susan Bates and was a native of East Weymouth where she had always been favorably known and in her younger days was a genial companion and a good society worker.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. William E. Ames and Mrs. George J. Reis, also two sons, George and Howard.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the home of William E.
Ames, 104 Third street, and were largely attended. Rev. W. H. Butler of the Methodist church officiated and a quartette composed of Miss Elsie R. Littlefield, Miss Ella M. Raymond, W. H. Pratt and M. P.
Garney rendered the following selections:
"Facing out of the Storm," "Something to Stand," and "Gathering Home." Many rare and beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem of friends and relatives. The interment was at Fairmount cemetery.

Sons of Veterans and Ladies' Aid.

ans, and Ladies' Aid have an interesting be the scene of the event. Officers of the two organizations will be installed, an entertaining will be given and at 8 o'clock will be a social hour.

THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT.

Why Its House Were Built Upon the Rip of Babel.

Wellington once declared that the most exciting moment of his life was not in the field of battle, but in the house when he led to the floor William IV. to attend a public banquet in the city during a time of great national excitement. Of the millions of people who every year see the English houses of parliament, how many imagine that their position was determined by strategic considerations? No one nowadays can think of the palace of Westminster in any other position than that which it occupies. But when the old houses were burned down and the task of rebuilding was a task of no mean importance, the question of the site of St. James' palace, Wellington proposed to put down his foot on the river.

The site suggested, its advocates pointed out, would be better as regards centrality and convenience than any other. But to the argument of objects there could be no answer.
"With a vast and growing population, such as yours in London," he said, "you must never make it possible that you can be surrounded. You must build your houses of parliament upon the river, so that the means of ingress and egress are safe and that the popular cannot exact their demands by sitting down around you." Sir William Fraser, in whose memoirs the story is recalled, mentioned it to Napoleon III. just before the death of the latter.
"What wisdom!" he said. "What was done?" And it set him musing upon the different turn which the history of France might have taken had he been observed in his own case—St. James' Gazette.

EAST WEYMOUTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

REGULAR CHURCH SERVICES:

Sunday morning preaching service at 10:30.
Sunday School session at 12:00.
Sunday evening service at 7:00.
Tuesday evening service at 7:30.

The meeting of the Y. M. A. Monday evening was one of the most successful ever held by the alliance. The attendance was larger than for some time and all who attended enjoyed very much the interesting and instructive talk by Dr. Joseph Chase, Jr., on "The Human Body, Its Uses and Abuses."

From 7 to 8 o'clock the game room was open to members, and a number of the young men gathered there for a social hour. On next Monday evening George Colby will give a talk on sheep raising and his experiences of the sheep ranches of the West. The entertainment for the meeting of Jan. 15 will be a debate—Resolved, "That the competitive system is a greater factor towards the world's progress than co-operation."

The affirmative will be supported by Ernest Smith and George Adams and the negative side by Walter L. Raymond and George Kittredge. Interest in the alliance is rapidly increasing, as is shown by the gain in attendance at the meetings and the enthusiasm with which the fellows take hold of the work.

Communion service will be held next Sunday morning at the close of the regular church service. The preparatory lecture for the communion was Tuesday evening. At that meeting cards were given out bearing this quotation: "Into you has been poured the world and ministry of reconciliation."

The second vesper service of the season was held Sunday afternoon and was a decided success. Besides music by the choir, solos were sung by Miss Ethel F.
Raymond, Miss Evelyn Sherman, Mrs. T.
H. Emerson and Charles A. Randall. The pastor gave a very interesting talk which was much enjoyed by the large number present.

WEYMOUTH AND EAST BRAINTREE

In a paper read before the Historical society at their December meeting, John H. Gutterman spoke of the debt Greater Boston owed to Weymouth musicians, and in some cases the reverse. First, that one of the members of the first paid quartet in the city was a Weymouth man, and second, that since that time no less than twenty-five churches paying the best salaries have had for a term of not less than a year, one, two and in some cases three organists or singers born in or at the time a resident of Weymouth. Lowell, Providence and Brockton, the millionaire churches of Portsmouth, Nahant, Falmouth and North Easton, not to mention smaller positions in neighboring towns and in our own midst, are being filled by Weymouth musicians. Mr. Gutterman raised the question, "Does the presence of such musicians whose professional life is outside our limits necessarily make the town more musical?" A general discussion followed.

IF YOU—

Find fault with others, it will make them faultier.

Worry about your work, it will make you less capable.

Anticipate evils, you will be sure to bring them upon you.

Imagine you are disliked, it will make you less likable.

Talk about your ill health, it will make you less healthy.

Remember the past, you will never get on the future.

Talk much of what you are going to do, you will never do it.

Complain of lack of opportunities, you'll miss what you have.

Wail bitterly that it is an unjust world and life not worth living, you'll find it come true for sure, in your own case at last.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Little Red Riding-hood.

Little Red Riding-hood is the heroine of a well known nursery tale, which relates her encounter with a wolf in the forest, the arts by which he deceived her and her tragic end. Grimm related the story from tradition and legend in the region bordering upon the river Main, in Germany. The legend is, however, widely disseminated. In the Swedish variation of the story Little Red Riding-hood takes refuge in a tree the wolf meanwhile gnawing at the roots, when her lover, alarmed by her cries, comes up just in time to see the tree fall and his ladylove crushed beneath it.

The Old Time Almanac.

An old minister at Massachusetts town tells how implicitly the people of a generation ago trusted the weather predictions of the "Farmer's Almanac." One of his flock had died, and the pastor was consoling his widow. The subject of the funeral came to be, "Wait, doctor," said she; "we must have it on a pleasant day." She hurriedly searched the almanac, and the day was set.

He Obedied the Law.

The professor swims from the sinking boat and climbs up on the bank. Then, dashing in again, he returns to the wreck and rescues his wife.

"But why didn't you save her before?" asks the captain in amazement. "My dear sir," was the learned man's reply, "I was bound to save my first. Self preservation is the highest law of nature."—Pilegrimage Blatter.

No Quarrel.

Housewife—And you left your last place because of a quarrel with your mistress? Applicant—Not a quarrel, mum. Housewife—How was it, then? Applicant—Well, mum, she was after me, and I spoke to her as one lady to another.—Cleveland Leader.

GATHERED UP.

There is an estate of 10,000 acres on the Delaware river which is used solely for the study of bird life.

The gypsy moth, which infested 350 square miles of territory five years ago, now infests 2,085 square miles. Considering that the whole trouble started in the first place by the escape of a single pair of moths, the task of extermination looks formidable, if not impossible.—Quincy Patriot.

The Kind Mother Used.

The bride was out marketing for the first time. She had ordered a generous number of eatables, and the next on her list was eggs. "I shall want a dozen," she said.

"Will you have eggs?" asked the clerk.

"Really, I don't know," answered the girl, wrinkling her pretty forehead. "If I recollect, mother always used hen eggs."—New York Press.

Nice Old-Fashioned Folk.

Senator Pettus, of Alabama, wears shirts made by his wife and socks which she has knitted. The old couple live in Selma, when not in Washington, and new manners and customs have changed them little. Since their marriage, 62 years ago, she has made all his linen garments. Until about twenty years ago she adhered to the ways of her foremothers and spun the flax herself. Now she finds her eyes are failing and she buys the linen from a merchant in Mobile, but the remainder of the work is her labor of love. As she talks to her guests, whether at home or in Washington, her fingers are busy with knitting. Mrs. Pettus has a remarkable memory and tells entertaining anecdotes in a quaint, old-fashioned way. On every anniversary of their marriage the couple give a reception for the Senate, and great is the shower of gifts.

Revised by Its Friends.

"Many so-called standarders freely admit that there are glaring errors in our present tariff law. They say they would favor correcting such errors if it could be done without a general tariff revision, but they argue that the country is now prosperous and that a revision of the tariff would seriously imperil that prosperity."

cannot share that fear if action is taken by the friends of protection. If such changes made to right admitted wrongs cannot be brought about without placing in peril our prosperity then it seems to me such prosperity must rest upon a speculative foundation and be a growth of the mushroom variety.

"Our orators have proclaimed that the tariff should be revised by its friends. We now have a large majority in the House and in the Senate. Having so large a majority, we should hardly admit our impotence to remedy any injustice for which we are responsible."—Congressman Lawrence.

The Square Man

Measures the same each day, and haunts got no shakier under him; he is free from knots and aches, and he won't warp; he is clear stuff, and won't swell nor shrink. He is among men what good old dried boards are among carpenters, he won't season break. It don't make any difference which side of him you come up to, he is the same business each way; he knows he is square, and never spends any time trying to prove it. The square man is one of them kind of chinks that kant alter a bit, but you must alter the spot to fit him.

He Attended to Business.

When my uncle first started in business as general merchant in a country town, it was in partnership with a young fellow about his own age.

Both boys were very enthusiastic about their work and after long days behind the counter they would go to their room above the store and continue to "talk shop" far into the night.

My uncle's partner was particularly engrossed in his work, and often his sleep was disturbed by dreams of customers and big sales.

One night his nightmare reached the climax. Evidently the dream was just in the act of ending, so my uncle, who was on my uncle's left, straight up the back, while his partner was calmly saying:

"Two yards, Madam?"—Lippincott's.

Care of House Plants.

Fresh air is very essential to successful plant culture. In close rooms the vitality of the air is soon exhausted, and there must be a new and regular supply to make and keep it what it ought to be.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEYMOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, JAN. 12, 1906.

Bear in mind when about to enter politics that it costs more not to win than it does to win. The late Frothingham campaign cost $42,000.

Three small children (one of them a half-brother, a half-sister and a half-brother) a bed, a table and matches, is not a juvenile combination to lock up in a room. They seldom come out whole.

Chancy Dewey has met with another setback this week. The bank at which he has so long been a prominent member of the board of directors, has retired him from the list.

Thomas E. Grover of Canton has succeeded in winning the coveted position of district attorney for southeastern Massachusetts, the position made vacant by the promotion of Asa P. French.

The Boston Nationals (base ball) have a dark outlook for the coming season.
As it was not enough to finish last season nearly at the foot of the ladder, they are now threatened with a law suit of $50,000 for breach of contract.

Mayor Fitzgerald has run up against the civil service law. He finds that his predecessor could raise the salary of classified men indiscriminately but no man can reduce those wages without a process of hearings and reasons.

March meeting is only two months away and we are beginning to hear the usual amount of pre-election talk. There are a number of changes talked about and if all signs do not fail, Ward 2 and 3 will have a goodly number of candidates in the field for selection. As to the other wards of town officers, we hear but little as yet, but there is plenty of time to develop new men.

The Democratic party of Massachusetts does not seem to be disheartened or discouraged at its failure to place a Democratic governor in the gubernatorial chair.
The party has begun early for another year's work, and has had its annual meeting for election of officers. The meeting is said to have been a spectacularly harmonious one and the veteran campaigner, Josiah Quincy, is chairman of the committee.

Congressional Week is one of the busiest times in Washington as he is not only following the details of Congressional work in general, looking after some special bills in which his constituents are particularly interested, but has now met one of the worst difficulties a Congressman has to encounter, i. e., all expiring post office terms. He has recommended Edith D. Hawes for the office at Sherburne and Edwin M. Holbrook for South Sherburne. These two were easy as neither of them had a competitor, but when it came to Needham the proposition was not so easy; there were seven competitors and every one had a good petition and bacing.

Old Colony Club.
The regular meeting of the club was held yesterday afternoon. Before the lecture, the club had the pleasure of listening to Miss Ellis Eldridge of Rockland, who rendered two piano solos. The lecture of the afternoon was Mrs. May Alden Ward of Boston, who spoke on "Current Events" in a most interesting way.
The parliamentary law class will meet every Wednesday morning in the Fogg library at 9 o'clock.

The next meeting of the club will be on Jan. 25. Prof. Delpierre of Tufts college will lecture on "Magnitudes."

LOVELL'S CORNER
—Mrs. Lydia Webb, who has been making an extended visit with friends in Scituate, has returned to her home on Pleasant street.

—Rev. L. G. Adams has been assisting the pastor at Ashland this week in special meetings.

Warren Lord of South Weymouth and Miss Mae Poole of Portland, were united in marriage Wednesday evening, Jan. 10.
Mr. and Mrs. Lord will go to New York on their wedding trip and when they return will reside on Centre street, East Weymouth.

—Mrs. Catherine S. Pratt, one of the town's oldest and most esteemed women, observed her 82d birthday anniversary at her home on Pleasant street, East Weymouth. Mrs. Pratt was born in Scituate and was one of eight children of Stephen and Patsience (Wade) Webb. She married Matthew Pratt of Weymouth, in 1840.
They had seven children, five of whom were present at the celebration Jan. 7.
For the past 60 years Mrs. Pratt has made Weymouth her home, and for many years has been connected with the Congregational and Methodist churches of East Weymouth and Methodist church of Porter. Mrs. Pratt enjoys good health and retains her faculties to a remarkable degree. She is a bright and interesting woman and is greatly loved by all who know her. She was the recipient of many gifts, and neighbors and friends called during the day and evening to tender congratulations and wish her many returns of her birthday. [Taken from Boston Evening Globe, Jan. 8, 1906.]

HEIGHTS
—There was a very good attendance at the meeting of the Legion Tuesday afternoon, twenty-five members being present. The subject of the meeting was "Light Houses." Herman Bates, president of the Legion, gave an original talk on the subject.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Recent visitors at the high school were Supt. Badger and Miss Marion L. Torrey of Boston.

The rhetorical programs for the past week were as follows: seniors—American statesmen; juniors—"The story of some book and current events"; sophomores—The retelling of classic myths; freshmen —Natural wonders, and the biographies of famous generals.

Miss Florence Cook '05, has returned to the high school as a post-graduate student, and will take up French and German in the two upper classes.

There will be two basketball games in the gymnasium today—one between the Ablington high girls and the Weymouth high girls, the other a class game between the senior and freshman boys.

Last Friday afternoon the sophomore boys defeated the freshmen boys in the second game of the class series, before a small audience. During the first half, Humphrey, playing for the freshmen, sustained a broken nose, but continued the game. The lineup—
